

WHICH SERVICE IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

Documentary Heritage and Preservation Services for New York

What are you hoping to gain from the process?

Agreement on organizational goals needed to support collections and a written agenda to help get there

Planning Services

What type of goals do you want to set?

Collections goals with a focus on establishing policies and procedures

Foundational Planning Assistance

Broader organization vision with the inclusion of broad collections-related goals

Strategic Planning Assistance

Guidance on setting priorities for collections goals and recommendations to achieve them

Assessment Services

What are your pressing concerns?

Understanding what we have, describing collections, creating access to materials

Archival Needs Assessment

Understanding our environment, emergency preparedness, storage, and care

Preservation Survey

Already have a preservation survey or plan?
Consider a Condition Survey to better understand the conservation needs of a small set of collection items.

Want to learn more about a specific topic in a shorter timeframe?
Check out all of DHPSNY's education programs including live and previously recorded webinars and dialogues, online courses and hands-on workshops

Documentary Heritage and Preservation Services for New York (DHPSNY) is a collaboration between the New York State Archives and the New York State Library to provide service and support for archival and library research collections throughout New York State.

New York State
Library